

Opportunities for the Alaskan Way Viaduct – Envisioning a Better Future

August 1, 2001, 6:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Bell Harbor, 2211 Alaskan Way, Pier 66, Sound Room

Workshop Objective: Identify key community urban design and operational values to help shape alternatives for the Viaduct's future. Work with project designers to understand opportunities and constraints, and envision creative solutions to address broad-based community values.

- 6:00 p.m. Welcome – Washington State Department of Transportation Secretary Doug MacDonald and Seattle Mayor Paul Schell
- 6:15 p.m. Reminder of Values
Scope of Work
- 6:30 p.m. Top Level Comparison of Options
- 6:45 p.m. Options
Constraints
Trade-offs of Promising Options
- 7:45 p.m. Discussion of Promising Options
- 8:45 p.m. Summary
- 9:00 p.m. Adjourn